

Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague

Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague

Orchestra

The Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague has been created by its current director Martin Šanda in year 2000. The high professional level of all musicians from orchestra is a quality guarantee and good sound level, perfect plasticity and guarantee of high touch level. The orchestra has very large repertoire and it interprets the most difficult opuses which were composed for symphonic orchestra.

The basic formation forms 70 musicians, but more musicians are possible as necessary for making big symphonical pieces, however in this „small“ formation well-kept high interpretational level and perfect sound of orchestra. The orchestra cooperates with well-known instrumentalists and vocal soloists and choirs (Bohemian Choir Prague).

Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague performed in very successful tours in most of European countries: Italy, Germany, Spain, France etc., but also in Japan and China.

Among others successes last years of the Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague is concert tour through Spain (Madrid, Alicante, Cordoba, San Sebastian, Vigo, Gijón, Logrono). Festival Cantelli - Novara in northern Italy. In December 2007 Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague participated in the concert in case of newborn CD under the conductor Young Chil Lee (South Korea) in Theatre Hybernia Prague.

In 2008 the Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague made Concert tour in Holland, with young pianist Anna Fedorova, which was finished with very successful concert in Amsterdam in Het Concertgebouw with Japanese Legend of Mozart Choir and conductor Yasuhiko Daimon (Japan), with program W.A.Mozart:; Koncert for piano and orchestra A dur K.488 (without conductor), Requiem d moll K.626, the orchestra participated in the performance in case of newborn CD under the conductor Young Chil Lee (South Korea) in Národní dům na Vinohradech – Majakovského Hall, with international soloists (Philippe Pierlot – France, Youngmi Kim, Sook Jung Lee – South Korea), festival concerts in Ohrid (Macedonia) and Kotor (Montenegro) together with Young Chil Lee and Korean violoncellist Young Chang Cho. (A.Dvořák – Symfonie 9 „From the New World“, Concert for violoncello and orchestra, Slavonic dance 8). In September and October 2008 the Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague with Chamber Opera Prague was in concert tour of Japan (Tokyo, Hiroshima, Nagasaki, Yokohama, Okaya,...). Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague was recording of the CD 22 Iveta Bartořová and recording the music for new Czech movie Veni, vidi, vici produce by Metropolitanfilm.

In January 2009 orchestra made New Year's tour in Holland together with international soloists and conductor Jeroen Weierink and in China (Dalian, Shenzhen, Guangzhou, Shunde). Furthermore the orchestra was participated in the record of the czech movie Three seasons in hell (production Dawson film in Czech-Polland-Slovakia-German cooproduction) This movie had three prestigios award „Český lev“. Than the orchestra did and still make exclusive tour with German group Corvus Corax (Leipzig, Berlin, Hamburg, Dresden,) in cooperation with Passionata Chor Berlin and the conductor Bernard Fabuljan. With the Corvus Corax we made the soundtrack to the computer game Dragon Age. In autumn 2009 Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague participated in the Vienna Konzerthaus together with soloists of the theatre Broadway New York in concert George Gershwin „I Got Rhythm“. In December originated Christmas CD of the czech pop star Iveta Bartořova.

In January 2010 Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague made exclusive tour in Germany, Czech republic and Switzerland Rock meets Classic together with leaders of the groups Nazareth (Dan McCafferti), Toto (Bobby Kimball) and Foreigner (Lou Gramm).

Among others Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague recorded a lot of the „consumer“ music like advertisement theme song , movie captions, czech movies music.

Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague try to help like attendant orchestra of the young talents, soloists and conductors (competitions, conductor master courses).

Since January 2009 was called to head conductor David Lukáš, whom made the concerts with.

United Arab Emirates Philharmonic Orchestra & Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague 20.2.2010 become partners in a common artistic cooperation.

Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague ranks among head Czech orchestras.

Operetta Galakonzert, Prague

Ohrid - Macedonia

Concertgebouw - Amsterdam

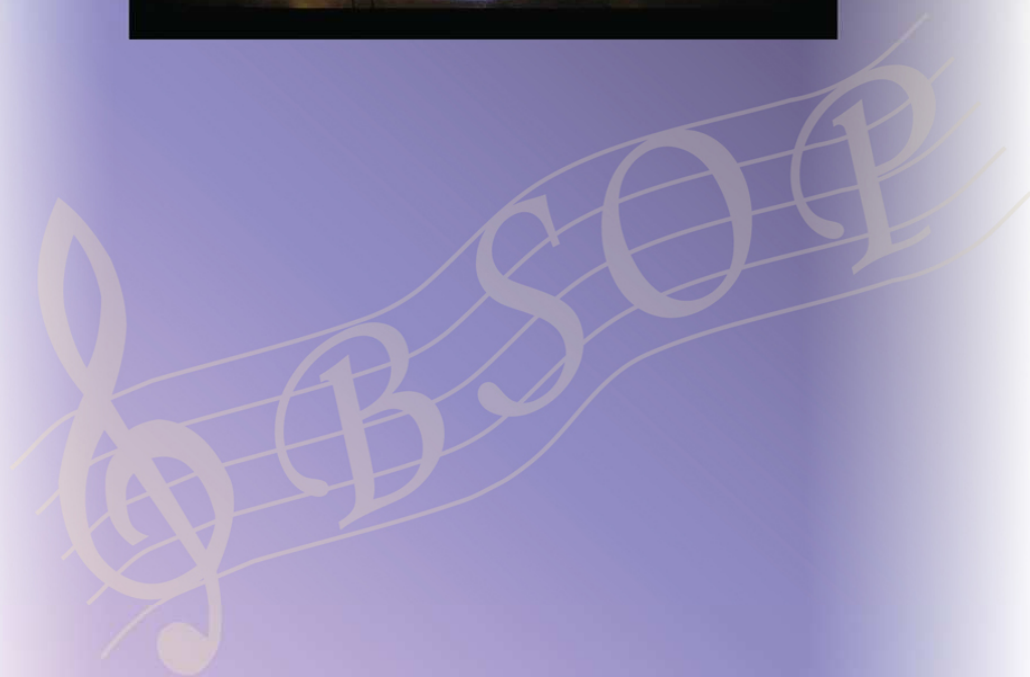

George Gershwin "I Got Rhythm"

Rock meets Classic 2010

Cantus Buranus II.

Bohemian Symphony Orchestra Prague

Lipnická 1448/75 Prague 9 19800 Czech Republic

IČ.:73434078 DIC: CZ8106102070

email: director@bsop.eu • office@bsop.eu • Tel.: 00420 777 815 753

www.bsop.eu